Sir:

Further to the Application for Patent Term Adjustment Under 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(b), filed on October 4, 2006 ("first Application") and the Issue Notification mailed by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on November 1, 2006, which incorrectly indicates a Patent Term Adjustment (PTA) of 561 days, and to the information from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system (a copy of the screen shot from the PAIR system being enclosed herewith), Applicant respectfully submits that the Patent Term Adjustment of 561 days as set forth in the PAIR system is incorrect and requests that the Patent Term Adjustment be corrected to indicate the PTA of 644 days for the reasons which follow.

P29696.A01

Statement of Facts

In accordance with the instructions from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, Applicant has checked the PAIR site, which indicates the PTA to be 561days (based on 732 days of PTO delay, less 171 days of Applicant's delay) as noted on the enclosed copy of the screen shot from the PAIR site. However, as explained in the first Application, the maximum number of days attributable to Applicants should be 88, not 171, days. The first application is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety, especially for its statement of facts and reasoning as to why the correct PTA should be 644 days.

Applicant notes that the data in the PTA History has been reviewed and compared with the data in the records of the undersigned. In this regard, Applicants note that the amount of Applicant delay stated in the PAIR site appears to be incorrectly based on treatment of the first Application as a "miscellaneous incoming letter".

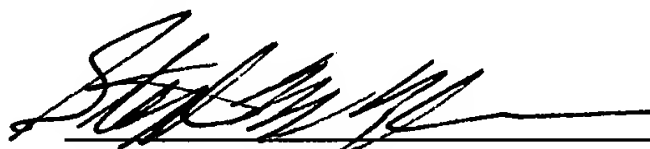

Accordingly, Applicant respectfully requests that the PTA term be corrected to 644 days as opposed to the 0 days currently designated in the PAIR system.

Applicant notes that the above identified application is not subject to any terminal disclaimer.

P29696.A01

Inasmuch as the present application for patent term adjustment is not necessitated by any action or delay by applicant, no fee is believed to necessary for consideration of this application for patent term adjustment. The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office is hereby authorized to credit any overpayment or charge any additional fee to Deposit Account No. 19-0089.

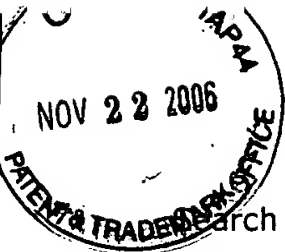

Respectfully submitted,
Andreas BLECKMANN
